

PAYROLL GIVING AT SFU

Every day, the thoughtful generosity of SFU’s donor community is helping change lives and advance an inclusive and sustainable future.

When you donate to SFU, you can directly support students through scholarships, awards and bursaries, health and wellness services, food security, and other meaningful giving opportunities.

Did you know that Payroll Giving is an easy and impactful way to provide ongoing support for SFU students as well as vital research, programming and innovation to strengthen the communities we serve?

Your gift will automatically be deducted from your bi-weekly paycheque and applied to the fund of your choice. And because SFU is a registered charitable organization, donations qualify for credits on your tax return.

Your contributions will be noted on your annual T4 slip, making it a very convenient way to donate and track your giving!
